YOUR RYBICKI TOURS ADVENTURE INCLUDES:

- Transportation- Roundtrip via modern motorcoach. Reclining seats + restroom equipped for your comfort.

- Cathedral of the Most Blessed Sacrament. The tour begins at the magnificent Cathedral of the Most Blessed Sacrament, the spiritual heart of the Archdiocese of Detroit. Built in the early 20th century, this awe-inspiring cathedral is an architectural treasure in the Gothic Revival style. Visitors will marvel at its soaring ceilings, intricately designed stained-glass windows, and elegant stone carvings. The serene atmosphere offers an opportunity for quiet reflection amidst its grandeur.

- St. Aloysius Parish. Next, a visit to St. Aloysius Parish, nestled in the bustling heart of downtown Detroit. Known for its rich history and welcoming community, this parish blends historical charm with contemporary urban outreach. The parish church, built in the early 20th century, boasts beautiful woodwork, striking stained-glass art, and a sense of timeless elegance. Gain a deeper appreciation for the church's role as a spiritual and social beacon in Detroit.

- St. Anne Catholic Church. The final stop is St. Anne Catholic Church in Warren, where you'll enjoy a classic Catholic parish tradition: a fish fry meal (included and at approximately 4:30pm). Served in a warm and friendly setting, this is a perfect chance to relax and savor some local flavors while mingling with fellow travelers and parishioners. St. Anne's welcoming environment and sense of community add a comforting conclusion to the day's tour.

- Tour Manager – Professional from Rybicki Tours Driver and Tour Manager gratuity not included.
